VAUGHAN HEALTH CARE FOUNDATION NETS $1,000 FROM TENNIS CANADA

VAUGHAN, ON – The Vaughan Health Care Foundation recently received $1,000 from Tennis Canada during Vaughan Day at the Rogers Cup tennis tournament.

“I would like to thank Tennis Canada for their generous donation,” said Mayor Michael Di Biase. “The partnership struck between the City of Vaughan and Tennis Canada will be beneficial in achieving our goal of a local health care facility.”

Tennis Canada pledged 25 per cent of all proceeds from hospitality packages purchased by Vaughan businesses and session ticket sales purchased by Vaughan residents.

The tournament was held at the Rexall Centre located on the York University campus.
